

APPEALS PROCEDURES

APPEALS – COURSEWORK STUDENTS

A student may appeal against the result given in any item of assessment when that student believes that some error in grading has been made or when there are concerns about the grade awarded.

In the first instance the student shall raise this matter with the lecturer concerned. After this informal dialogue, if the student still believes there are grounds to appeal, the student may formally appeal to the Academic Board of their Member Institution.

Where a student believes that the review procedures in the Member Institution have not been followed with regard to an appeal against a failed final grade, the student may appeal to the Academic Board of the College;

- (a) this is the only ground on which an appeal can be made to the Academic Board;
- (b) the appeal must be submitted in writing to the Dean within ten working days of receipt of the determinative outcome of the appeal from the Member Institution;
- (c) the student must provide the Dean with documented evidence that the regulations on Review and Appeals have not been complied with by the Member Institution;

- (e) the decision of the Academic Board will be final.
